

A. I gave it to a distant cousin of mine that wanted it to look up some records, and she has it. I suppose she has.

Q. Is she living now? Do you think she could help us in this?

A. I don't think so. I don't imagine so.

Q. Now after the death of your father, Clarence Hilleary, who owned this 104 acres that we are discussing?

A. My mother and my brother and myself.

Q. And your mother's name was?

A. Charlotte.

Q. Charlotte?

A. Yes.

Q. I find a reference in several of these deeds to Charlotte Wheeler Hilleary.

A. Yes.

Q. Was Wheeler her maiden name?

A. Yes.

Q. And that was your mother?

A. No. That was her name. She was a Miss Wheeler. My mother was a Miss Wheeler.

Q. I see. I understand. Bank in 1914 in the Court House in Frederick County there is a record of a deed from Sarah Ellen Knapp Addoms to Charlotte Wheeler Hilleary, Widow, Harry Wheeler Hilleary and Sallie Worthington Hilleary. Now that would be your mother, yourself and your brother?

A. Yes.
